PACK 700 CUB SCOUTS:

- Boys in the first through fifth grade (or 7 - 10 years old).
- Boys of different ages/grades have different ranks, challenging requirements, and awards.
- Levels of skills and abilities increase and Cub Scouts advance through the ranks.

PACK 700 FAMILIES:

- Cub Scouting is for families too. Parents work closely with their Cub Scout on the advancement trail and support them in scouting.
- Parents also volunteer in various roles at both the den and pack levels.

TRAINED VOLUNTEER LEADERS:

- Boy Scout of America (BSA) trained leaders
- Two out of every five Cubs in this pack have a parent who is a BSA background screened volunteer

SERVICE PROJECTS:

- Scouting for Food in the Fall
- Adopt A Family at Christmas time
- Morgan Hill Beautification Day
- Morgan Hill Lions Club Annual Pancake Breakfast

DEN AND PACK MEETINGS:

Cub Scouts meet with boys their own age/grade in a small group Den meeting monthly.

Once a month, the Dens come together at a Pack meeting. Families are encouraged to attend as well.

Both the Den meetings and Pack meetings are an opportunity for fun and learning with a purpose.

Meeting activities might be:

- working on rank advancements
- going on field trips
- making crafts and projects
- playing games
- creating and performing skits and/or songs
- learning from special speakers
- earning and receiving awards

SPECIAL EVENTS:

Throughout the year, we have events to celebrate Cub Scout traditions.

Events can include:

- Pinewood Derby in January
- Blue & Gold Banquet in February
- Cubmobile races
- Cub Scout Summer Day Camp
- Pack camping overnighter
- Fourth of July parade
- Special overnighter to a zoo or historical landmark
